PLAINTIFF’S SECOND NOTICE REGARDING MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY

Plaintiff Video Gaming Technologies, Inc. (“VGT”) submits this further notice to apprise the Court of additional developments relating to the disputed issues in VGT’s Motion to Compel (“Motion”) (ECF No. 105) that have occurred since VGT filed its previous notice (ECF No. 113).

This morning Defendants submitted additional supplemental interrogatory responses, including with respect to Interrogatory No. 22. Following receipt of these responses, VGT asked Defendants to confirm that their “supplemental responses to Interrogatory Nos. 22 and 23 and Request for Production Nos. 39, 40, 41 and 43 reflect all responsive information that Defendants have and that Defendants will not be relying on any information that is responsive to those requests that Defendants have withheld.” Defendants responded as follows: “We can confirm that we did not withhold information in response to these requests, and that the supplemental responses are complete based on what we have and know at this time. The one caveat is we did intend to supplement the interrogatory asking about affirmative defenses based on the answer filed last night.”

Based on VGT’s understanding that Defendants have provided the confirmation VGT requested, VGT believes the hearing scheduled for this afternoon on the motion to compel can be cancelled.

Respectfully submitted,
